Georgia Twomey joined RaboResearch Food & Agribusiness in June 2014 as a commodity analyst, responsible for sugar, cotton and wool.

Rabobank's RaboResearch Food & Agribusiness team is charged with analysing developments in food and agricultural markets and industries, and advising the bank and its clients on strategic implications for their businesses.

Georgia has a degree in Economics (Social Science) from the University of Sydney and was previously with the Australian Chamber of Commerce in Singapore as business programme manager, providing significant exposure to Australian business and government engagement in the Asian region.

Georgia's knowledge of agricultural production, processing and marketing has developed through marketing and supply chain management roles held within the Lempriere Group and as a consultant working on projects for local and federal Government and rural industry groups with natural resources and agricultural specialists Arche Consulting.

Please contact Georgia on +61 2 8115 2446 for further information on RaboResearch Food & Agribusiness.
